

Sadness The Leprechaun

BAND STORY

Sadness The Leprechaun began his quest for greatness with only a hand full of lyrics and his guitar. His fair sister, Lady Putzington, later joined him on his merry way, adding octaves, harmonies, and estrogen. The kinship continued as Jebz joined the group adding dual guitar parts, haunting melodies, and one hell of a mustache. On their travels toward folk super-stardom they came upon yet another fair maiden. Her name was baxter, and enveloped their music in the stoic embrace of her viola. While a pot of gold would be nice, a leprechaun named Sadness doesn't expect much
